JOHN ELIAS SCOTT,

Plaintiff,

v.

ANDREA PENA, STATE OF UTAH,
PROVO CITY, UTAH COUNTY, PROVO
4th DISTRICT COURT, and CLAUDIA

Defendant.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION TO REMAND RE: ECF NO. 7

Case No. 2:15-CV-00774-RJS

Judge Robert J. Shelby

Magistrate Judge Evelyn J. Furse

---

Defendants Andrea Pena, the State of Utah, Provo 4th District Court, and the Honorable Claudia Laycock (the “State Defendants”) move the Court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1447\(c\), to remand this action back to the Provo 4th District Court. (Defs.’ Mot. to Remand & Mem. in Supp. (“Mot.”), ECF No. 7.) Having carefully considered the parties’ briefing, the undersigned RECOMMENDS the Court REMAND this action and award the State Defendants reasonable attorney’s fees incurred because Mr. Scott improperly removed the case from state court.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

In April 2006, Plaintiff John Elias Scott filed a petition for divorce from Andrea Pena Scott in the Provo 4th District Court thus initiating a divorce proceeding that has proven highly contentious. (Scott v. Scott, No. 064400836, Docket, at Attachment A.) Mr. Scott disapproves of the state court orders as “egregious, unsavory, unlawful, forbidden, and inappropriate” and alleges that these decisions harm his minor children.<sup>1</sup> (Notice of Removal 2, ECF No. 3.)

On October 30, 2015, Mr. Scott filed a Notice of Removal of that case alleging violations of his civil and constitutional rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. (Notice of Removal 1, ECF No. 3.) The Notice of Removal contains three other case numbers. (Id.) One of them, 20150813, is the appellate case number for the divorce case. (Attachment B.) The other case number, 154401950, is a protective order case with Mr. Scott as the petitioner and its appeal, 20150812. (Attachments C & D.) Because of the nature of these cases, the Court cannot access most of the relevant filings. Mr. Scott also filed a supplemental “Notice of Pendant Federal Torts and Other Federal Questions & Challenges” in this Court naming 150 “federal questions and challenges” as well as 191 “additional defendants” who have allegedly committed tortious acts against him. (ECF No. 3-2.)

On November 12, 2015, the State Defendants filed the instant Motion to Remand, (ECF No. 7), as well as a Motion to Expedite Briefing on the Motion to Remand, (ECF No. 8), in which the State Defendants requested that the Court shorten the deadline for Mr. Scott to respond to their Motion to Remand. On November 17, 2015, the Court denied the State Defendants’ request to expedite briefing, but granted the State Defendants’ waiver of their right to file a Reply, and agreed to consider the Motion to Remand in an expedited manner. (ECF No. 9.) On November 30, Mr. Scott filed an Opposition to the State Defendants’ Motion to Remand. (Pl.’s Mot. for Sanctions & Obj. to Def.’s Mot. to Remand (“Opp’n”), ECF No. 10.)

<sup>1</sup> Mr. Scott also brought multiple lawsuits in both state and federal court alleging constitutional violations and other tortious conduct arising from the state court’s divorce, child custody, and parenting-time decision. (Mot. 4-5, ECF No. 7.)

DISCUSSION

A. Mr. Scott, as the Petitioner in the Listed Cases, May Not Remove the Cases to Federal Court.

28 U.S.C. § 1441, which governs the removal of civil actions, states that “[e]xcept as otherwise expressly provided by Act of Congress, any civil action brought in a State court of which the district courts of the United States have original jurisdiction, may be removed by the defendant or defendants, to the district court of the United States . . . .” 28 U.S.C. § 1441\(a\) (emphasis added). Thus, under the plain language of 28 U.S.C. § 1441, only defendants may remove a case to federal court. 28 U.S.C. § 1441\(a\). The Supreme Court has confirmed that plaintiffs may not invoke the removal statute. See Shamrock Oil & Gas Corp. v. Sheets, 313 U.S. 100, 104-108 (1941) (explaining that removal statute’s legislative history shows Congress intended to narrow federal jurisdiction on removal to defendants). Similarly, § 1443, which governs the removal of civil rights cases, only allows removal by defendants. 28 U.S.C. § 1443.

Mr. Scott is the petitioner in both cases he seeks to remove. Mr. Scott does not dispute the long-standing principle that only defendants may remove a case from state to federal court but makes the unsupported allegation that the Provo 4th District Court’s “egregious, unsavory, unlawful, forbidden, and inappropriate orders have caused that Petitioner is now a defendant in his own case.” (Notice of Removal 2, ECF No. 3.) Mr. Scott offers no explanation as to how he became a “defendant in his own case” nor does the record indicate the State Defendants filed any counterclaims against him. As a result, the undersigned RECOMMENDS the Court grant the State Defendants’ Motion to Remand because Mr. Scott, as petitioner, cannot remove the listed cases as a matter of law.

B. Mr. Scott's Completely Improper Removal Entitles the State Defendants to Reasonable Attorney's Fees.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c), a court “may require payment of just costs and any actual expenses, including attorney fees, incurred as a result of the removal” in its order remanding the case. 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c). The award of attorney’s fees under § 1447(c) turns on the reasonableness of the removal. Martin v. Franklin Capital Corp., 546 U.S. 132, 141 (2005). “Absent unusual circumstances, courts may award attorney’s fees under § 1447(c) only where the removing party lacked an objectively reasonable basis for seeking removal.” Id. That a litigant proceeds pro se does not prevent courts from imposing sanctions under § 1447(c). See Topeka Hous. Auth. v. Johnson, 404 F.3d 1245, 1248 (10th Cir. 2005) (affirming district court’s award of § 1447(c) attorney’s fees to plaintiff due to improper removal by pro se defendant).

Mr. Scott lacked an objectively reasonable basis for seeking removal of his two cases. First, even a cursory reading of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441(a) and 1443, the latter of which Mr. Scott cites in his Notice of Removal, reveals that only defendants can remove an action to federal court. Moreover, even if Mr. Scott truly lacked an awareness of the impropriety of his removal, the State Defendants’ Motion to Remand should have put Mr. Scott on notice. See Doe ex rel. Hughes v. Martinez, 674 F. Supp. 2d 1282, 1285 (D. N.M. 2009) (granting § 1447(c) attorney’s fees in part because plaintiffs’ motion to remand should clearly have put defendant’s lawyer on notice of the improper removal). Mr. Scott not only opposed the Motion to Remand without basis, he also filed a motion for sanctions that same day, requiring the State Defendants to respond. (ECF No. 11, 13.)

Furthermore, the timing of Mr. Scott’s removal also provides evidence of bad faith. Mr. Scott filed the removal shortly before a hearing on child support. (Notice of Removal, ECF No.

3; Scott v. Scott, Docket at 24, at Attachment A.) By filing the removal, Mr. Scott delayed potential changes in his child support payments by months.

The Supreme Court explained that the appropriate test for awarding § 1447(c) attorney's fees "should recognize the desire to deter removals sought for the purpose of prolonging litigation and imposing costs on the opposing party, while not undermining Congress' basic decision to afford defendants a right to remove as a general matter, when the statutory criteria are satisfied." Martin, 546 U.S. at 140. As the State Defendants point out, the record indicates Mr. Scott previously filed numerous unmeritorious claims, for which one court found him a vexatious litigant, sanctioned him, and ordered him to retain an attorney or pay a civil fine for frivolous filings. (Ruling & Order: Sanctions 2-4, ECF No. 7-3.) Mr. Scott's actions indicate his motivation stems, at least in part, from the desire to prolong litigation and impose costs on people whom he dislikes or believes have harmed him. As such, despite Mr. Scott's pro se status, the undersigned RECOMMENDS the Court award reasonable attorney's fees under § 1447(c).

C. The Domestic Relations Exception

As a point of information, the Supreme Court has long held that federal courts lack jurisdiction over "[t]he whole subject of the domestic relations of husband and wife, parent and child." Ankerbrandt v. Richards, 504 U.S. 689, 703 (1992) (alteration in original) (quoting In re Burrus, 136 U.S. 586, 593-94 (1890)). This "domestic relations" exception to federal question and diversity jurisdiction "divests the federal courts of power to issue divorce, alimony, and child custody decrees." Id. Mr. Scott correctly asserts that the Constitution does not dictate this result (Opp'n 5-6, ECF No. 10); rather, statutory interpretation imposes the limitation. Ankerbrandt, 504 U.S. at 700. Without access to Mr. Scott's Petitions, however, the undersigned lacks the necessary information to determine conclusively whether Mr. Scott's cases fall within the domestic relations exception.

RECOMMENDATION

For the foregoing reasons, the undersigned RECOMMENDS the Court GRANT the State Defendants' Motion to Remand and award the State Defendants reasonable attorney's fees incurred as a result of Mr. Scott's removal. The Court will send copies of this Report and Recommendation to the parties, who are hereby notified of their right to object to the same. The parties are further notified that they must file any objection to this Report and Recommendation with the clerk of the district court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636\(b\) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 72\(b\), within fourteen (14) days of service thereof. Failure to file objections may constitute waiver of objections upon subsequent review.

DATED this 15th day of January, 2016.
